

Dr Samita Nandy (PhD)

Author | Keynote | Producer | Model

BIO

As Director of Centre for Media and Celebrity Studies (CMCS), keynote speaker, and author of Fame in Hollywood North, Dr Samita Nandy has been covered in media including CBC, VICE, Flare, Chatelaine, SUN Media, and many more. Her Doctoral research on celebrity culture at Curtin University in Australia led to publications in the Celebrity Studies journal and a number of books chapters.

She is currently writing a trilogy on ways in which women can become celebrity activists in the post-Weinstein era of Hollywood.

Dr Samita Nandy (PhD)

Author | Keynote | Producer | Model

Press Inquiries:

Please send requests for interviews and high-resolution photographs to samitanandy@gmail.com. Include accreditation, interview topic, and deadline. Should clarifications be required over the phone, the nature of these clarifications should be specified in the email. Kindly allow at least 2 hrs advanced notice for media appearances.

For further information, including FAQs, please see the media section of my website: www.samitanandy.com